recently celebrated the grand opening of its $20 million, 71,100-square foot, 85-unit assisted-living community in Littleton.

MacKenzie House developed MorningStar Senior Living at 5344 S. Kipling Parkway – the first MorningStar Senior Living-brand-ed facility in the Denver area.

The community includes 65 assisted-living units and 20 Alzheimer's units with rents averaging $3,000 to $4,000 a month.

Lantz-Boggio Architects designed the community, built by Palace Construction.

MacKenzie House also has broken ground on two $60 million continuing care campuses in Colorado Springs and Fort Collins. ▲
